Meet the Judges

Teresa Ford (Agility)

I am Nelson born and bred way back in the mid 70's. I have lived in Christchurch for nearly 3 years now. My family consists of (starting with who came first):

AgCh Luke – Springer Spaniel x Large Munsterlander (12 years old and nearing a well earned retirement); Kendra – daughter (7 years old – but by the time you are reading this, nearly 8); AgCh Lace – BC (7 years old); Cassie – BC (18 months old); Vince – my lovely partner (age doesn't matter). Last but not least, as I write this we are expecting a (two legged) baby around 7th October.

Luke was a crazy agility dog (my first dog and me being new to agility didn't help!!) and gained his AgCh when he was 7. Being a small maxi and getting older has taken its toll over the last year, but he still loves agility and cruises around courses barking and happy as Larry!. He only needs 4 more challenges for Grand, but I think the old boy will struggle with that – he is grand to me anyway. He is very good with Kendra at Young Guns and runs with her in YKC.

Lace is great fun to run and keeps me very honest! She gained her Ag Ch status early this year. My goal with her is Grand AgCh.

Cassie is just our cute little puppy at the moment. Agility will start when I have some time to do some training.

Nothing much else to say, except I wish you all the very best for the weekend. Good luck!

Meet the Judges

Jo Miller (Obedience)

As a teenager, I dabbled in dog obedience with my anxiety-ridden Pembroke Welsh Corgi, Bronwyn. Many years later, I joined an obedience club after Gypsy, my rehomed English Bull Terrier cross, baled our neighbour's son up a tree! In more recent times, I have been competing with Flynn, my rather hyperactive Welsh Springer Spaniel, another rehomed dog. Our rare moments of brilliance have been outnumbered by those occasions when canine creativity and less than brilliant handling have been the order of the day! All I can say is that my competitive dog obedience career to date has been humbling and character building.

In March 2009, we added Oscar (handy dog) to the family and I am loving working with a puppy.

I attended my first NDTA in Timaru in 2004 as a brand new obedience judge. It was an absolute (but scary) thrill to be asked to steward a Special Beginner's class during that fantastic weekend.

Now I am back at another National Dog Training Assembly and I am honoured to have been asked by the Southern Region Obedience Committee to judge the NZKC Young Kennel Club Obedience tests. What a fantastic opportunity to be able to work with the younger members of the dog sport community.

As an obedience judge (and a relatively new one, at that), what I am looking for is that dog and handler combination who work together seamlessly, who respect each other and who are having fun! Quite simply, I am looking for the best team (well, in my eyes anyway)!

Have a great weekend everyone and remember this sport is meant to be fun!
